Jan. 25, 2018
Release # 20180125-01
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Combined Joint Task Force - Operation Inherent Resolve Monthly Civilian Casualty Report

SOUTHWEST ASIA - The Coalition and our partners continue to conduct operations to liberate areas from Daesh control in Syria and secure liberated areas in Iraq and Syria. In the past month the Coalition and our partners executed a number of missions that killed and captured Daesh fighters.

Iraqi Security Forces continue to secure their people, country and borders, consolidating gains made over the past three years, especially over the last year as many major population centers were wrested from Daesh control. The Government of Iraq and ISF continue to secure areas and conduct clearance operations in already liberated areas. These operations are successfully preventing Daesh fighters from reconsolidating within Iraq.

Syrian Democratic Forces continue hard fighting against a ruthless and brutal enemy in the Middle Euphrates River Valley, capturing and killing hundreds of Daesh terrorists in the past month.

CJTF-OIR is resolute in its mission, working with our partners to achieve a lasting defeat of Daesh and enabling non-military stabilization activities in 2018. "We're clear the enemy is still capable of offensive action and retains the ability to plan and inspire attacks worldwide," said Brig. Gen. Jonathan Braga, CJTF-OIR director of operations. "We will sustain the successful momentum and enhance our partners' capacities in pursuing Daesh and countering violent extremism, now and in the future."

In the month of December, CJTF-OIR carried over 603 open reports of possible civilian casualties from previous months and received 21 new reports resulting from Coalition strikes (artillery or air) in support of partner force operations to defeat ISIS in Iraq and Syria.

During this period, the Coalition completed the assessment of 218 reports: 207 were assessed to be non-credible, five were assessed to be duplicates of previous reports, and six were assessed to be credible, resulting in 13 unintentional civilian deaths. To date, based on information available, CJTF-OIR assesses at least 831 civilians have been unintentionally killed by Coalition strikes since the start of Operation Inherent Resolve. A total of 406 reports are still open.

Combined Joint Task Force Operation Inherent Resolve

The Coalition conducted a total of 28,783 strikes between August 2014 and December 2017. During this period, the total number of reports of possible civilian casualties was 1,820. The total number of credible reports of civilian casualties during this time period was 220.

After a thorough review of the facts and circumstances of each civilian casualty report, CJTF-OIR assessed the following 207 reports as non-credible: at this time there is insufficient information to assess that, more likely than not, a Coalition strike resulted in civilian casualties.

A finding of non-credible in many cases indicates a lack of evidence. “Non-credible” is not intended to deny the possibility that a CIVCAS incident occurred, nor is it intended as a comment on the credibility on the source of the allegation.

3. June 13, 2017 near the Post Office, Raqqah, Syria via Airwars report. This report was assessed to be a duplicate of closed allegation. The duplicate allegation was assessed to be not credible due to no corroborating Coalition strikes in the area.
4. June 17, 2017 near Raqqah, Syria via Airwars report. This report was assessed to be a duplicate of closed allegation. The duplicate allegation was assessed to be not credible due to no corroborating Coalition strikes in the area.
5. June 21, 2017 near Al Rumeila neighborhood, Raqqah, Syria via a regional humanitarian organization. This report was assessed to be a duplicate of closed allegation. The duplicate allegation was assessed to be not credible.

Although the Coalition takes extraordinary efforts to strike military targets in a manner that minimizes the risk of civilian casualties, in some incidents casualties are unavoidable. Six reports were assessed to be credible resulting in the unintentional death of 13 civilians. The Coalition also added one unintentional civilian deaths from past reports previously excluded from the count.

A credible assessment means it is more likely than not a Coalition strike resulted in a civilian casualty. In each of the incidents below, the investigation assessed that although all feasible precautions were taken and the decision to strike complied with the law of armed conflict, unintended civilian casualties unfortunately occurred.

1. March 21, 2017 near Al-Thawarah, Tabqah, Syria via Airwars report. During a Coalition strike that destroyed an ISIS weapons facility and headquarters reportedly under ISIS control for almost two years, one civilian was unintentionally killed and one was unintentionally injured.
2. May 4, 2017 near Raqqah, Syria via Airwars report. During a Coalition strike which destroyed a building being used as ISIS headquarters and lethal aid supply building for nearly two years it was assessed four civilians were unintentionally killed and seven civilians were unintentionally injured.
3. June 15, 2017 near Al Intifada neighborhood, Raqqah, Syria via regional humanitarian organization. During a Coalition strike which destroyed an ISIS indirect fire weapon system it was assessed that four civilians were unintentionally killed.
4. Aug. 7, 2017 near Raqqah, Syria via self-report. During a Coalition strike which destroyed an ISIS indirect fire weapon system it was assessed that two civilians were unintentionally killed when they inadvertently crossed into the area of the blast after the weapons were fired from a Coalition aircraft.
