Allegation	November 4th 2016: الحيوي قرية Al Hiyewi village, Raqqa, Syria  Summary: Three men were killed in airstrikes, according to a local source. RBSS reported the deaths of three men “following air raids carried out by the international coalition.” It named the victims as Mahmoud al Kader; Mo’ammad al Rudaini; and Mohammad al Atra. The Syrian Network and several outlets including Shaam News Network also reported the deaths of 3 civilians. Deir Ezzor and al Raqqa Legal Network shared the same three names as RBSS. LCCSY, however, put the number killed in Hiyewi at five. A statement later issued by 100 Syrian writers provided more details: “Coalition aircraft had targeted on Friday a civilian car with machine guns, killing three people from Khaniz village near Raqqa, close to al Hiyewi village. They were returning to their village after giving their condolences to a relative who was also killed by the International Coalition.” The statement also called on the Coalition to “stop targeting civilians in the province of Raqqa and in all other areas, and open transparent investigation incidents into shelling of civilian sites by the international coalition and to hold accountable anyone found responsible.
