Allegation Description	Estimated Casualties – Killed: 4-5+, Injured: 6+ Source #1:  June 30th, 2017: (I596) الفاروق Farouk area (Old Mosul), Mosul, Nineveh province, Iraq  Summary: A local Facebook page and a resident said that one young man named Ahmed Hikmat al-Tai was killed and many families were still under the rubble after air strikes hit the Farouk area (near the Jewish area) in Old Mosul. Local resident Noor Alniamy called for help for several families in the Farouk area, saying that voices could be heard from under the rubble and that the civil defence would not come to rescue them. This is possibly related to earlier incidents, as the post suggested the families had been under the rubble for five days now. Local monitor Sowef Ateka reported speaking with a child who had lost family members in the event: “A child we met during the distribution of aid near the victory bridge said all members of her family were killed in the bombing during the liberation of the neighborhood of Farouk. They were under the rubble and were recovered by Salamat.” A senior Coalition official informed Airwars on July 5th that “It is primarily Coalition aircraft conducting AIR strikes in Mosul. It has been a number of weeks since the Iraqis flew there.”  Civilians reported killed: 4-5 or more  Civilians reported injured: 6 or more  Sources: Sawlf Ateka (Facebook) [Arabic] [Archived], Noor Alniamy (Facebook) [Arabic] [Archived], VIDEO Sawif Ateka (2), Victims of Coalition in Mosul [Arabic] [Archived],  Quality of reporting: Fair.
